

June 2012 DEC Connection News-at-a-Glance

Our fun-filled Music Dinner in Maynard

Thanks to three of our musically talented members -- Rolf Seichter, Bob Alessio, and Marilyn Goodrich, and to Jack Mileski who organized this event, thirty-something (our number, not our age :)) DEC Connection members and guests enjoyed a great dinner at the River Rock Grille followed by a terrific sing-along! The highlight was singing the two songs with "new" lyrics written by Rolf - Maynard Town and Where Have All the DECcies Gone? You can see his songs and our photos on our web page. - 227 DEC alumni and guests attended the 10th annual CXO Reunion in Colorado Springs on April 27th - way to go!
- We especially missed Bob & Dee Glorioso at our Music Dinner, since they are both talented singers with the Stow Chorus, but Bob had an important mission that weekend: I am chairing our Ham Radio Club's 24 hour emergency exercise as part of a national emergency drill June 23 and 24. We will be operating 4 radio stations on emergency power at the Concord Rod and Gun Club near the Concord Rotary. We will set up in the morning, go on the air at 2PM, operate until 2PM on Sunday the 24th and be on our way home by 4PM after packing our gear and tearing down about one-dozen antennas!
- Ralph Dieter wrote in on Tue, 29 May 2012: I note that today is the 20th anniversary of our SERP. I wonder how many remembered?

- Bob Moore, DEC Connection Treasurer, won an HP Computer at the last HP Retiree Briefing in Andover MA. Here he is trying it out (at right).
